

This program assists older adults and their families in their efforts to acquire information about programs and services in order to obtain appropriate resources to meet their needs. Information and Assistance Coordinator assists care needs by identifying, making referrals, and coordinating services which are necessary to enable the individual to remain in the least restrictive environment. Referrals are made to resources in North Carolina as well as out of state.

Click here to view our Moore County Resource Guide for Older Adults.